

XPO Logistics launches new LTL transport service between Europe and Morocco

Santander, Spain - September 30, 2015 – XPO Logistics has launched a new pallet distribution and groupage service between Europe and Morocco. Customers are now able to ship from Europe to any destination in Morocco by using XPO's leading European and domestic LTL network service, Red Europe®. The service is available inbound and outbound.

With no volume limits and a single-pallet minimum shipment, this new transport service allows customers that have business interests with Morocco to arrange regular imports and exports of all sizes. XPO offers daily collections and twice-weekly shipments, on Wednesdays and Saturdays, in both directions.

XPO Logistics has had successful operations in Morocco since 2009, working in the manufacturing, automotive and components, textile and chemical sectors with blue-chip customers. The company is an expert in global transport solutions to and from Morocco for the textile industry, offering hanging and folded garment transportation to various distribution centers across Europe, factory collections, quality control and direct-to-consumer shipments.

“This new service broadens our current Red Europe service offering, and strengthens XPO Logistics' position as one of the largest transport operators between Europe and Morocco. We cross the Strait of Gibraltar over 10,000 times per year. And looking ahead to 2016, we are working on new projects designed to further expand our footprint in Morocco to meet our customers' needs.” Manuel Troitiño, Regional Director Morocco, Transport at XPO Logistics Iberia, explained.
