

NileDutch becomes vessel provider on FEWA service

13 Feb 2017

From March 4 2017, NileDutch, the container and break bulk specialist in West Africa, will be providing a vessel on its existing FEWA (Far East – West Africa) service. The mv TEXAS, a 7.000 TEUs vessel, will sail from QINGDAO on march 4, 2017 with voyage nr 30260A. The frequency of the service remains on weekly basis.

Port rotation

The weekly service will be operated using 12 vessels (7.000 TEU). The port rotation will be: Qingdao, Xingang-Tianjin, Busan, Shanghai, Ningbo, Nansha, Tanjung Pelepas, Singapore, Cape Town, Pointe Noire, Luanda, Cape Town, Port Kelang and Singapore.

The FEWA service calls on all the important ports in West Africa and is supported by NileDutch's feeder service which brings cargo even closer to its final destination in the region. This development is a logical next step in strengthening our position for the best interest of our customers.

Nile Dutch Africa Line BV
Rotterdam – The Netherlands
February 10, 2017

