

Corporate Messages

April 16, 2018

Asia-Europe Trade – Service Update

Dear Valued Customer,

In response to the expected low demand after the Labor Day holiday in China, we would like to inform you of the withdrawal of the following Asia-Europe sailings:

Asia – West Mediterranean Service

- WM1, XIN BEIJING (XBJ) 104W/104E
 - o Westbound: ETA Qingdao on May 7 in Week 19
 - o Eastbound: ETA La Spezia on June 8 in Week 23
- AAS, COSCO HONG KONG (CHK) 133W/133E
 - o Westbound: ETA Shanghai on April 25 in Week 17
 - o Eastbound: ETA Trieste on May 28 in Week 22
- o For service recovery arrangements from the AAS blank sailing, the CMA CGM VOLGA (VLG) 317W/318E in the EM1 service will add calls to Koper and Trieste by adjusting its own port rotation as follows: Shanghai – Pusan – Ningbo – Shekou – Singapore – Koper – Trieste – Istanbul (Evyap/Izmit) – Istanbul(Ambarli/Avcilar) – Constanza – Odessa – Istanbul (Ambarli/Avcilar) – Port Said West – Jeddah – Port Kelang - Pusan

Asia – East Mediterranean and Black Sea Service

- EM2, EVER STRONG (RON) 077W/077E

- o Westbound: ETA Qingdao on May 3 in Week 18

- o Eastbound: ETA Ashdod on May 29 in Week 22

For further information, please kindly contact our local representatives.

Thank you for your understanding and support of OOCL.